

International Workshop

Extra-Ordinary Knowledge

Epistemic Forms of Representation in Roman Nature and Science Writing

Friday, November 25

15.00–15.30: Introduction by Melanie Möller & Matthias Grandl

15.30–16.30: “Curiouser and Curiouser” ...
Pliny’s Naturalis Historia as ‘Enchantment’ of the World
Matthias Grandl

coffee break

17.00–18.00: Pliny’s Indices, Display of an Epistemic Architecture
Anja Wolkenhauer

coffee break

18.30–19.30: Styles of Knowledge: Some Thoughts on Language, Literary Form, and the Traffic of Ideas in the Younger Seneca and the Elder Pliny
Gareth Williams

Saturday, November 26

10.00–11.00: The Hail’s Watchers: Doxography and Superstition in Sen. Nat. 4b
Francesca Romana Berno

coffee break

11.30–12.30: Stories of Nature. On the Anecdotal Narration of Pliny’s Natural History
Ágnes Darab

lunch

14.00–15.00: The Importance of Being Tiny: Pliny the Elder and the Knowledge of Nature through Tiny Entities
Pedro Duarte

15.00–16.00: Round-up

