

Die Sprache des Bewusstseins und das Bewusstsein von Sprache im Alten Orient

17. November 2014
SFB-Villa, Schwendenerstr. 8
14195 Berlin

Programm

9:00	Begrüßung und Einführung/Introduction E. Cancik-Kirschbaum, J. Klinger	14:30	Writing Speech and Performing Language: The Role of Phonetic Writing in the Sumerian Liturgical Tradition P. Delnero
9:15	Thoughts on the origin and purpose of metalinguistic writing G. Selz	15:15	A conceptual win-win struggle between swiftness and formal constraints J.S. Pettersson
10:00	Categories, Kinds, and Determinatives F. Rochberg	16:00	Kaffeepause/coffee break
10:45	Kaffeepause/coffee break	16:15	Enhancing Readability: Patterns of Logographic Usage in Hieroglyphic Luwian A. Payne
11:00	Paradigmatic Learning - Spelling Conventions and Sound Shifts in the Akkadian Texts composed at Hattusa/Bogazköy L. Wilhelmi	17:00	Archaische Verwaltungstexte zwischen Mündlichkeit, Schriftlichkeit und Kontext: das Beispiel der mykenischen Linear B-Tafeln I. Hajnal
11:45	Metalinguistic awareness as illustrated by orthographic and other minutiae M. Worthington	17:45	Abschlussdiskussion/final discussion
12:30	Mittagspause/lunch break	20:00	Konferenzdinner/conference dinner

Kontakt:

J. Cale Johnson (jcale@zedat.fu-berlin.de)

Ute Birk, Sekretariat (altorientalistik@geschkult.fu-berlin.de)

Julia Levenson, Studentische Hilfskraft (jjl@zedat.fu-berlin.de)